About the Foundation

Originally founded in 1999 as a charitable trust the Foundation became a Scottish Incorporated Organisation (SCIO) on 31 October 2017.

Our Charitable purposes are:

- The advancement of citizenship or community development, and
- The advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science.

Our Charitable objects are:

- To advance community development and heritage by conserving, improving and developing the historic character of the town of St Andrews.

The town of St Andrews for the purposes set out above shall be as defined from time to time by the statutory planning authority or as may be determined from time to time by our charity trustees.

The trustees aim to pursue their purposes by awarding grants to worthwhile qualifying projects and by undertaking relevant projects directly. An application form can be found on our website or from our Secretaries at their contact address.
